

Bring Fine Arts Education to Your School

With a Golden Gate Opera

in-school assembly

Performance options for 2004/2005:

Hansel and Gretel by Engelbert Humperdinck

Golden Gate Opera's colorful production of the fairytale favorite Hansel and Gretel delights children of all ages. Have Hansel, Gretel and the Witch visit your school to bring the opera's most familiar and exciting scenes to life. This in-school production includes full costumes and traveling sets and props. GGO's conductor will offer explanatory narration and piano accompaniment throughout the 45 minute performance.

Advanced study materials guide and teacher's study guide available. Q&A session available at the end of each performance. Available Spring 2004 through Spring 2005.

For more information, contact Golden Gate Opera at 415-388-7827 or by email at info@goldengateopera.org.

Our professional artists and staff work with you to provide in-school fine arts education for your students!

Reserve your date today!

How Do You Sing like that, Anyway?

Golden Gate Opera's gala performance contains famous scenes from La Boheme, H.M.S. Pinafore, Marriage of Figaro, Lakme and more!

Student participation is encouraged for this performance. Popular with Middle and High school students, 4 to 6 singers are accompanied by piano. Q&A Session available at the end of the 45 minute performance. Available Spring 2004 through Spring 2005.

The Jumping Frog of Calaveras County

Based on Mark Twain's story set during the California Gold Rush, this fully staged one-act contemporary opera is performed in English. A great fine arts supplement to Literature and History lessons, the traveling set works well on stage for Middle and High school students, 45 minutes. Available Spring 2005 only.

Opera Plaza • 601 Van Ness Avenue, E-3814 • San Francisco, CA 94120

(415) 388-7827 • www.goldengateopera.org • info@goldengateopera.org